

Our 2018
Oleander Garden Festival is Almost Here!

When: Saturday, April 28th, 10am - 4pm
Where: Betty Head Oleander Garden Park
2624 Sealy in Galveston

Please Note: Road construction in front of the park is completed sooner than expected and we are able to move from Moody Mansion back across the street to our park for our Oleander Garden Festival!

We'll be selling oleanders, plumeria cuttings, & gardenias to support park maintenance and our 2018 goal of making the park ADA accessible for those with disabilities.

Come visit with friends, enjoy live music, & have fun shopping our great vendors!

Oleander Varieties Available for Purchase:

Calypso (iridescent red); Hardy Red (very cold tolerant); Petite Red (dark red); Mrs. Roeding (deep salmon pink); Carnival (single salmon w/deeper accents); Sister Agnes (single white); Hardy White (very cold tolerant); Mathilde Ferrier (double yellow); Kewpie (variegated pink/white); Turner's Tickled Pink (single candy-striped); Turner's Shari D (buff yellow); Trey Boy (red); Turner's Flirt (hot pink); and Martha Hanna Hensley (pink&white w/light fragrance); Trinity (red); Charles Newding (dark rose)
- all varieties subject to plant readiness at festival time -

Live Music by
Galveston Ukulele Society
Two 1/2 Men

- Free Oleander Coloring Books for Kids (while supplies last)

The Oleander
is the Official Flower of Galveston

Galveston is Known Internationally as
The Oleander City